

May 21, 2009
Local 223 UWUA
Substation Division
6:30 PM at Union Hall

Presentation for Substation Operator Journeyman
Recognition of Apprenticeship Program

- Welcome & Appreciation of Attendance & use of Local 223 Facilities
- Introductions
 - Jim Harrison-President Local 223 UWUA
 - Jemone Taylor- Chairperson- Substation Division
 - Janene Kellyerne-Apprenticeship Coordinator-OCC
 - Jim Demercado- U.S. Dept. of Labor-Office of Apprenticeship
 - Dr. Pat Dolly-President OCC Auburn Hills Campus
 - Dean Phil Hale-Dean of Technology
 - Russ Pogats-Director SE&E
 - Dave Allen-Manager-Substations
 - Bill Brown-Substation Supervisor/COE
 - Andy Schmeck-Sustation Supervisor/COE
 - Harry Dalzell-Lead Trainer/COE
 - Ed McCarthy-Lead Trainer/COE
- Partnership Efforts with Local 223 & Management
- Significance of U.S. Dept. of Labor Recognition
 1. National
 2. Industrial Standards / Apprentice Program
 3. Documented Training
- Significance of Coordination with OCC
 1. Courses Provided : Basic Electrical Theory
 2. Program Validation : Provides 32 Credit Hours towards Associate Degree Technological Science
- Presentation of Certificates : Jemone Taylor